

Bordeaux (France)

Culture

During this lockdown period, access to culture remains one of the city's priorities. A large proportion of the collections held in the city's public museums remain available to all online. Access all the websites via <http://www.bordeaux.fr/p63866/culture>

The city's cultural services have been showcasing one work per day from Bordeaux's museums, library or botanical gardens, or from one of the region's cultural attractions.

Highlights from previous days include:

- Les Essais de Montaigne, manuscript: <http://bibliotheque.bordeaux.fr/>
This unique handwritten version of the text is peppered with corrections from Montaigne's own quill. We can see the writer at work, developing both his text and his ideas.

- Lampe Olo, by Jean-Baptiste Fastrez: <https://madd-bordeaux.fr/>
An intriguing lamp designed by Jean-Baptiste Fastrez: half Super 8 camera, half domestic robot of the future...

Type of initiative: Creating or improving the digital access to heritage (when physical access is impossible)
