

Warsaw (Poland)

Warsaw supports victims of domestic violence

The need to stay at home increases the risk of aggressive behavior and violence towards family members. The capital city constantly helps victims of violence. On the website UM.WARSZAWA.PL/ANTYPRZEMOCOWA you can find up-to-date information on the functioning of aid institutions: helpline numbers, free legal aid, psychological support, help points in the vicinity. In connection with the coronavirus epidemic, facilities operate in accordance with appropriate sanitary procedures.

Information on the assistance available in the capital can also be obtained by calling the Warsaw City Contact Center at 19 115 - open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The OWHC's response to the coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19)

The Organization of World Heritage Cities (OWHC) wishes to support its member cities by gathering and sharing all the actions implemented by local and regional governments around the world.

To share your city's best practices, you can complete the FORM available on the OWHC website. All your initiatives will be published in the special section WWW.OVPM.ORG/COVID-19/RECOVERY.
